

Vesna Kolovska is a graduated journalist with 30 years of experience. She works as an editor-in-chief at the national radio "Kanal 77". In her work experience, she also worked as a correspondent from Skopje for the British service BBC. She collaborates with several domestic and foreign media. She is the author of research stories and works on productions for civil society organizations. From the very beginning of the establishment of the News Agency "Meta" she has been working as an external collaborator and correspondent. Vesna also collaborates with "Media Fact-Checking Service" and "Truthmeter".